

FINDING LIST

OF THE

GALESBURG

Public Library.

1887.

GALESBURG, ILLINOIS :
PRESS OF COLVILLE & BRO.
132-136 MAIN STREET.

EXPLANATION.

In this FINDING LIST books are entered in alphabetical order both under the titles of the books and also under the names of the authors.

To find any book look for the first word of its title not an article (a, an, or the).

Exception. In a few cases (history and biography) the title has been transposed : as, Ireland, History of ; Napoleon I., Life of.

To ascertain what books of an author are in the library, look for the name of the author, and the titles of the books by the author are given under his name.

If the printed number opposite a book is in italics, it indicates that it is a juvenile book.

The dates given with books of history and biography indicate the period covered by the subject of the book.

In applying for a book, copy on a slip (provided at the desk) the number printed opposite the book wished for, adding also second and third choice, in case the book desired may be already drawn from the library.

Should farther explanation be required, it will be cheerfully given by the librarian.

GENERAL PLAN OF CATALOGUE.

The general plan of the library cataloguing includes :

1. THE CARD CATALOGUE, in manuscript or by type-writer, the arrangement of which is alphabetical by authors and titles.
2. THE SUBJECT CARD CATALOGUE, by type-writer or in manuscript, the arrangement of which is alphabetical by subjects, and under subjects alphabetical by authors.
3. THIS PRINTED FINDING LIST in which the books are entered in alphabetical order by authors and titles.
4. PRINTED BULLETINS and SUPPLEMENTS issued from time to time, the arrangement of which will be like this printed finding list, alphabetical by authors and titles.
